

Baileys Beauty Salon Bringing Glitz & Glamour to Burntwood

Debbie would like to welcome you to Baileys Beauty Salon, a newly established salon situated in the heart of Burntwood. Debbie prides herself on being able to offer you a warm and friendly environment where you can enjoy a range of quality treatments at affordable prices. Debbie's career in beauty therapy has spanned nearly 30 years. Having worked in a top London Clinic, a premier UK Health Spa and on the luxury cruise liners in the USA and Caribbean, this extensive insight has enabled her to teach and examine within a number of colleges in the UK. For the past 18 years Debbie has taught Beauty and Holistic Therapies at Derby College, which she found challenging and rewarding. Since 1998 Debbie successfully ran the Hairdressing & Beauty Therapy department as the Operations Manager, taking the area from a grade 4 to an aspiring grade 1 when she left in July. Debbie is known within the beauty industry as a therapist and lecturer, and has an excellent reputation for her inspiration & teaching skills. She is passionate about the industry; ensuring high standards of professional practice are maintained. Debbie will be offering professional beauty therapy training courses accredited by the Guild of Beauty Therapists, at the salon in Burntwood for learners interested in training in units of beauty therapy. Information will be available on the website in the New Year. Also available at Baileys Beauty Salon is Nails by Sally. Sally is a Calgel Specialist who has worked in the industry for 10 years. She prides herself on being able to offer Beautiful, Flawless nails and a Professional nail care service. At Baileys we want to ensure your treatment is as relaxing and enjoyable as possible. So leave your troubles at the door and enjoy the experience, whether it's for a luxury relaxing session or a necessary waxing treatment. We value your custom and want our salon to become part of your regular beauty regime. We also stock a range of professional products for you to purchase, to ensure you can continue good skin care at home.
